

CONTROL OF COAL INDUSTRY BY BIG OPERATORS DENIED

Business of Three Largest 10 Per Cent of Whole, Senate Committee Told.

SOME ABUSES ADMITTED

Conditions Prevailing for Last Year and Abnormal Prices Charged to Transportation Breakdown, Consolidation Company Council Declares.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Bituminous coal production is "free from any approaching control or potential control by any group," Ralph Lewis, attorney for the Consolidation Coal company, testified today before a Senate committee in opposing the "a" bill to regulate the industry. The three largest producers of which the Consolidation is one, he said, control together less than 10 per cent of the yearly output. If high prices for coal last year, he said, were almost entirely due to transportation difficulties. A general discussion of prices followed and the witness said that "out of all these conditions there have undoubtedly grown some abuses in the coal business and these I am not here to defend. However, the most important thing for us to do is to get back to a sane consideration of these things from a pre-war state of mind and look for remedies that will be effective in normal times."

After the two had left somebody offered the suggestion they were on mischief bent; that they were incendiaries. It was a student, of course, that suggested that the principal decided to send out some student firebugs.

VERDICT FOR $500 IS AGREED UPON IN SUIT AGAINST CITY

Amount Awarded to Mrs. Ella Wilson For Death of Husband.

FELL INTO WATER POOL

By agreement of counsel a compromise verdict for $500 was awarded in Uniontown today to Mrs. Ella Wilson of Dunbar township in her suit against the city of Connellsville as the result of the death of her husband, John M. Wilson, who was drowned by falling into a pool of water on the West Side hill in November, 1917.

The case was called at the opening of the day's session of court. No testimony was taken.

Mr. Wilson, who was 37 years old, came to Connellsville on November 10, 1917 and started for home in the evening, presumably. According to the best information he left a West Penn car at or near Hookvale and is supposed to have wandered about and fallen into the pool in a depression in the surface caused by a mine gas-in.

The body was found on November 18. There was no indication of foul play, $16.51 out of $25 he was said to have had when he left home and a gold watch being found on his person.

Liability on the part of the city was charged to the fact that the section in which the case-lens are located is not built up it has been laid out in lots.

RABBIT BAG FIVE DAILY

Another Measure Would Make Shooting or Killing Hunter by Mistake a Crime; Wildlife License Tag in Middle of Back Is to Be Advocated.

By Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Jan. 21.—Eight recommendations for changes in the Pennsylvania game code have been outlined by the State Game Commission and will be embodied in bills to be submitted to the Legislature as the result of experience of the past two years. Some of the propositions have been discussed at various meetings of sportsmen and game associations, and the game commission will appear in support of some of the bills before legislative committees in event of hearings being asked.

The first recommendation is for the small game season to begin the month of November, near from November 1 to December 31 and raccoon from October 1 to December 31, while the second will be a reduction of the bag limit on rabbits to five a day and 20 to 40 a season and ringneck pheasants to three per day and six for the season.

Plans also have been made for bills to clarify the game code provisions relating to deer destroying crops, disposal of illegally killed game, tagging of game within six hours and listing of hunters in parties.

Another amendment would require the hunter's license tag be worn in the middle of the back while hunting and give the game commission authority to revoke licenses from one to five years, while the seventh bill would forbid the shooting with bullets except at wild birds or animals or at properly protected targets. Another bill would make shooting or killing of persons in mistake indictable for manslaughter.

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 21, 1921.

A GRAVE EMERGENCY IN COAL AND COKE.

A situation is developing at Washington which should cause very serious concern to the producers of coal and coke. The sentiment favoring a reorganization of governmental control of the coal industry is apparently growing and every advantage is being taken of existing circumstances and conditions, and strong efforts are being made, to crystallize that sentiment into legislative action.

This present campaign was begun by Senators Calder and Edges, who formulated a bill which provides for even more drastic regulation than the war time measures and empowers an inquisition into the cost of production and other statistics exceeding the scope of that conducted by the Federal Trade Commission until stopped by an adverse court decision. As the agitation has progressed there has been a noticeable strengthening in the demand for means to prevent the recurrence of some of the conditions which marked the course of the coal market during the last year.

The effects resulting from the imposition of the priority orders last summer, and the wild swing of coal prices which were stimulated by the competition of a certain class of coal jobbers in bidding for coal after the railroad strike had paralyzed transportation, has aroused very bitter resentment against the whole industry.
Whatever prejudice earlier existed against federal control seems to have been swept aside by the continuance of the unsatisfactory conditions in the trade after the Fuel Administration ceased to function. Making no distinction between the creative course of conduct by the pirates and highway-men and the reputable and conservative producers and dealers, the proponents of governmental control, taking their cue from the public outcry, seem determined to make a mass attack upon Congress to push the Calder bill through.

Chagrined at its failure to exact elaborate and confidential information as to operating costs from the coal producers, the Federal Trade Commission is very much interested in the proposed measure. This body seeks inquisitorial powers of an extraordinary character, to confer which will require additional legislation, such as is proposed. Were this limited to a just, reasonable and proper supervisory control and regulation of the coal industry, analogous to that of the Interstate Commerce Commission over the railroads, there would be less objection on the part of the coal producers. But experience with federal control has been such that the regulatory bodies are not content with anything short of large powers.

For these reasons, and the possibility that Congress may be stampeded to yield to the clamor for the imposition of such burdensome restrictions that they will fall but little short of nationalization of the industry, the producers of coal and coke are confronted with a grave emergency which demands vigorous action and united endeavor on their part to meet it they hope to preserve the same freedom and independence accorded other important factors in the realm of production.

Secretary of Labor Wilson having given Assistant Secretary Post such an enthusiastic endorsement as "one of the truest Americans," and declaring he more ardently acted under instructions in refusing to deport the Bolsheviks and anarchists, will help explain to the friends of Irish freedom why it was finally decided that Mayor O'Con-nelly of Cork must be sent back home.

Fine as is the record of the school children in having practiced thrift to the extent of depositing $15,500 during the past year, how much better would it have been had the number of depositors more nearly approached 100 per cent of the total enrollment.

The proposal to cut out the free seed distribution by Congressmen may result in a new crop of troubles for some of the members.

It will be an inconsistent trade unionist who does not endorse the movement of housewives for an eight-hour day.

The East Side is likely to become jealous of the West Side, and furious at the Pennsylvania railroad, if it is not also provided with the convenience of a crossing watchman.

That is no fair attack The American Legion is making on the bonus. It is a movement to achieve the objective of justice for those who served and sacrificed.

When Federal and State Law Conflicts

Pittsburg Gazette Times.

What may be a "nice" legal question with respect to jurisdiction in liquor cases has been raised in West Virginia by a man accused in both the state and federal courts, approximately the same act being the basis of the separate prosecutions. The defendant was convicted in the state court of violating the West Virginia prohibition law and took an appeal. Then he was haled before the bar of the United States Court on a charge of violating the Volstead act. Not unreasonably, as will appear to the jury in the defense protests against a second trial on the ground that the Constitution protects one from being twice put in jeopardy for the same offense. But the federal prosecutor contends, according to the news report, that the national prohibition law abrogates all state enactments as to the liquor traffic and insists that this defendant should be again tried. The judge is thinking over the question.

One point seems clear. The federal law does not "abrogate all state laws" on the subject covered by the prohibition enforcement act. That which might be legal under state enactments may be outlawed by the federal statute, but the latter cannot legalize conduct which the state law prohibits. Thus while the Volstead act limits the alcoholic content of beverages to one-half of one per cent, any state may prohibit the sale of beverages containing the slightest trace of alcohol.
That is the reasonable view, at any rate. What may be judicially decided is, of course, "something else again."

Service and Industry

Harrisburg Telegraph.

One sentence and two words of that sentence, in Governor Sprules' message to the Legislature have attracted above all others the unanimous attention of the newspapers of the state.
They are:

"Let us go to our tasks with serious industry, remembering that good service is our greatest political asset."

Service and industry?

Here are two words that ought to be in the mind of every citizen and in the minds of every body of citizens gathered together for any purpose. Back of these lies the solution to all our grievous problems of business depression, industrial idleness and discontent. Service is not only the Republican party's greatest political asset; it is its very stock in trade, and upon the quality of that stock depends the continued patronage of people that has backed the "For Rent" sign on the house of folly in which it has been living the past few years, has returned to ways of industry and thrift and expects its servants to do likewise.
The governor speaks wisely. It remains for the Legislature to act as wisely.

HOPWOOD YOUTH FREED

Release of Hubert France is Under
"Two Term Rule," Court News.

By an order of court handed down yesterday in Uniontown Hubert France, of Hopwood, who has been incarcerated in the county jail since May 20, last, charged with an offense against the "moral code," was discharged from imprisonment under the "two term rule." It was contended that both the September and December terms of criminal court passed without giving him a trial and that the delay was not with the assent of the defendant. He was indicted upon two charges at the June session and was tried on charges of larceny and with switches of the West Penn Railways company near Hopwood and acquitted. But was never tried upon the moral charge. The District Attorney's office raised the question as to his mental condition and argued that he was not a fit person to be at large.
Surety was Not Sustained.

In the case of Austin Livingston, et al, supervisors of Franklin township against Franklin township on an appeal, a jury yesterday morning found that the compensation paid to the treasurer, C. J. Jordan, for the year ending 1919 was not excessive and refused to sustain the surcharge against the supervisors and returned a verdict in favor of the appellants named as the plaintiff in the case.

IT PLEASANT READY TO HONOR MEMORY OF CAPT. ZUNDELL

body of former Commander of Company E on Way Across Atlantic.

LEGION POST IS IN CHARGE

Jan 21. Have Remains Lie in State for Several Days at Quarters of Post. Named After the Captain: Legion Play Is Well Received.

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, Jan. 21.—Nolice having been received that the body of Captain James F. Zundell, in whose honor the Mount Pleasant post of The American Legion is named is on the way to the States, preparations have been made by the post for receiving it. On Wednesday word came that the body was in New York but later a message said this was a mistake but that it was on the way across the Atlantic.

A committee of the Legion post has been appointed to take charge of the body when it arrives. On the committee are John Donnelly, P. A. McIntosh and Captain Thomas Cost. On its arrival the body will be removed to the post room where it will lie in state for several days, following which funeral services will be conducted in the United Presbyterian church.

Many of those of the old 110th Infantry probably will be here to attend the funeral. The former Company E, of which Captain Zundell was in command at the time of his death in France, and the new company will participate in the services.

While it is uncertain when the body will arrive the members of the post felt it better to make all preliminary arrangements.

Must Not Support Dance.
East, Huntingdon Township High and Mount Pleasant High teams will play basketball this evening from 5 to 7 o'clock at the Scottdale Y. M. C.
A. and away in the local academy later this evening, as had been arranged.

Borough Principal H. H. DeLoe has ruled that the high school team could not play a preliminary game at the armory, as the high school organization cannot be permitted to back up a public dance nor should the name of the organization be used to advertise such a function.

Manager John Miller of the Superior basketball team has announced that despite the fact that the high school team will not play this evening at the armory there will still be a preliminary game.

On Visit Here.
Charles Kidenor, Charles Long and Lawrence Fox of New Stanton and A.
Ryan of Scottsdale called on Mr. Ridenour's brother-in-law, W. P. Linder, yesterday.

Legion Play Draws Well.
There was a good attendance at the American Legion play, "All Aboard," last evening. The production was very well given under the direction of Miss Florence Dudgeon. The following were the leading characters: "Billy Grady," a college chap, Crosby Thompson; "Dorothy Grady," his sister, Kathryn Madden; "Johnny Grady," another college boy, Stewart Ellen; "Beatrice Sloane," Billy's sweetheart, Miss Mary Madden; "Mrs.
Sloane," mother of Beatrice, Miss Kathryn Donnelly; "Captain Kidd of the S. S. Florida," Charles Moore;
"Jean," a stewardess, Elizabeth King; "Alexander C. Phone," a human truck, Raymond Post; "Barney Felt," comic singer, Robert Fox;
"Bull Works," comic sailor, Charles Croft.

The play will be repeated tonight, at the Grand opera house.

Do You Know a Baby Sick With Constipation

Tell the mother to give half a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's

NO thoughtful mother with children in the house will risk being without a good, reliable laxative. It will save many a serious illness, many a doctor's visit.

When the baby cries and is fretful, when the boy has no appetite and won't play, when the girl is listless and feverish, when there are complaints of headaches and colds, the mother can suspect constipation. Give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the small dose prescribed on the bottle, when you put the child to bed, and with morning the ailment will have disappeared.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a popular compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. It acts gently and mildly, and children take it without objection. A sixty-cent bottle is enough to last an average family many months. The ingredients are endorsed in U. S. Pharmacopoeia, and last year American mothers bought over eight million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from druggists. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, and few cautious families are ever without it.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull aches as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck.
It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.
Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet—olds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

When Women Begin To Lose Youth and Charm

Dr. Frederic K. Kalle, the New York author of medical text books, whose opinions are greatly valued, writes:
"When the nerve system begins to lose its vitality, women begin to lose her youth and vivaciousness. Her lively, pleasant disposition fades away—she becomes irritable, moody and respondent. It would be a godsend if men and women were aware of the efficacy of Hytrin-Phosphate.

Thousands of thin, run-down people whose nervous energy is nearly exhausted are turning to Hytrin-Phosphate as dispensed by Connellsville Drug Co., because it re-vitalizes the nerves and brings back energy and mental keenness."

HIGH SCHOOL AND AMERICAN LEGION TEAMS HAVE GAMES TODAY, "Y" PLAYS TOMORROW

North Braddock at Gymnasium; Legion Meets Armory Club
at Armory Tonight.

UNIONTOWN TO PLAY "Y"

Two basketball games, both of first class type, will be played in Connelville today. The first was scheduled for 4 o'clock at the high school gymnasium where the Cokers were to meet the dribblers from North Braddock in a W. P. A. league game. The other will be played at the armory tonight between the American Legion team and that of the Armory club.

"Y" JUNIORS WILL GIVE UNIONTOWN SCOUTS RUN

The Y. M. C. A. Juniors will give the Uniontown Boy Scouts, Troop No. 3, a hard game when the visitors come here tomorrow afternoon. The locals were only organized last week, although the boys have been on the floor a month, playing on various teams of the "Y" league.

Haven't heard of any Casey club games lately. That organization shouldn't allow such gaps between contests. It will give too much room for deterioration of the team.

Two league games are scheduled to be played at the "Y" this afternoon.

While North Braddock plays here this afternoon, two other games in Section 2 of the W. P. A. league are scheduled. Scottsdales plays at Latrobe and Braddock goes to Turtle Creek.

There will be only one league game next week for Connelville. That will be at Turtle Creek Friday night.

The uniforms for both the Y. M. C. A. Junior and senior basketball teams have arrived. The Juniors will appear in them tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Reports from Pittsburgh say that North Braddock should defeat the Cokers. Connelville might show the Smoky City prophets something.

Christy Mathewson, former Giant pitcher, known to all sportsmen as the Big Six, is gradually winning his fight against tuberculosis, reports say. His doctor expects to put him "on exercise" in about seven months.

Dickerson Run.

DICKERSON, RUN, Jan. 19.—Mrs. Thomas Quinn and children of Mount Braddock are spending this week here visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ambrose.

P. Jones of Pittsburgh was a business caller here Tuesday morning. Gus Glendon of West Newton was transacting business here yesterday. Frank Stark returned to Pittsburgh yesterday after spending the day here on business.

Mrs. E. Rollins, Mrs. E. J. Beatty and Mrs. W. A. Gillespie were calling on Connelville friends Tuesday afternoon.

A. B. Joseph has returned to work after being off duty for several days on account of sickness.

THEY BOTH FOUND HYPO-COD IDEAL

Garé Them Many Pounds Weight, Built Them Up, Steadied Nerves.

RESULTS WERE QUICK

"I suffered from heart trouble and nervousness. I was all run down in health and couldn't walk up a small hill without resting before I began taking your Hypo-Cod, and I only weighed 120 pounds.

"After taking only two bottles and a half I had gained in weight, and now, after six months, I weigh 140 pounds and feel just fine. I am solid and not flabby.

"My sister took Hypo-Cod before I did. She was just a shadow. The doctor told her she had lung trouble and now after using Hypo-Cod she weighs more than I do. We both think it is one of the greatest medicines that was ever put out of the market. I will always keep Hypo-Cod in my house.

"I recommend Hypo-Cod because I know from experience that it is just what you say it is, and I will recommend it to anybody and everywhere I can. I am glad to tell you how much I think of Hypo-Cod," declared Vera Thompson of Allison Park, Pa.

"Thousands of people swear by Hypo-Cod just as the lady does above. Even in chronic cases where the trouble has existed so long it seems the whole system is depleted. Even when old age makes it doubly hard to reach such troubles, users say that by using Hypo-Cod regularly they get relief.

Some people say they don't like to take a tonic. Others say they have tried a hundred tonics and none were strong enough to help them. To such people we say—Go right down to your drug store and let the clerk wrap you up a couple bottles of this new, more modern and powerful tonic. Take them home and use per directions, and this wonderful preparation will delight you we are sure.

Bare's Hypo-Cod is sold here by all good druggists and the leading druggists in all nearby towns.—Adv.

LAUGH-TURNED ON COMEDIAN ALTROCK

Nick Altrock, the baseball comedian, pulls another one about the Eastern fans. His latest follows:

"Every city I go into they usually make a target of me and try to say as many mean things as they can, but, of course, that is their privilege, and far be it from me to take offense. In fact, I rather enjoy some of their remarks.

"This summer in New York I was out on the coaching lines, cutting up, when a loud-voiced fan yelled: 'Hey, Nick, pin back your ears so I can see the diamond. There are 30 fans behind me who would also like to see what is going on.'"

"That fellow won the prize."

FOOTBALL INJURIOUS TO BASEBALL STARS

Walter McCredie Declares That Two Games Cannot Mix.

Pacific Coast Expert Says Gridiron
Sport Has Ruined More Diamond
Prospects Than All the Pillow Slips in the World.

Walter McCredie says he likes to take in a college football game now and then, but he shudders every time a couple of players collide in mid-field. Not that he is playing the players.

"Greasy" Neale, especially. He's playing baseball more. He says football has ruined more good baseball prospects than all the pillow slips in the world.

"The University of Oregon in Dudley Clarke once had one of the most promising young baseball players I ever saw," said Mac. "He was fast, a good fielder, and he could certainly slam the pellet. He would have been a star in the big leagues at a big salary, if he had come with Portland when I tried to get him. But Clarke wouldn't come. He had a couple more years of football and wanted to play out his time. Two or three years later he signed with one of the teams in the Northwestern league, but couldn't make good. Football had ruined him for baseball. He had a game ankle or so and his legs could not stand the strain."

"So far as I know only one great college football player has made a great baseball player. That was Christy Mathewson, who was a star in the backfield for Bucknell college before he joined the Giants. Neale, who plays with the Cincinnati Reds, was a football player, but it has hurt his baseball."

ESTIMATED COST OF SOCCER

English Fans Paid $10,000,000 to See Their Favorite Players Perform in 1919-20.

It is estimated soccer fans of England paid $10,000,000 to see their favorite players perform during the 1919-20 season. The professional clubs of the first league spend from $50,000 to $100,000 and upwards for a season. Players' wages alone often reach $35,000 and as much as $50,000 has been spent by some clubs in transfer fees while team building.

PENNSYLVANIA TO PLAY POLO

Armory Has Been Secured for Practice and Match With West Point Has Been Arranged.

A polo team representing the University of Pennsylvania is rapidly becoming a reality. The use of the Twenty-third street armory has been secured for the winter. A squad has been formed and will practice every afternoon. A schedule for the new sport is being worked out and a match with West Point has been definitely arranged.

GREENSBURG BANKER MAKES INTERESTING STATEMENT

Tells How Two Years of Trouble
Was Relieved When Nerv-Worth Overcame His Nervous and Stomach Ailms.

"For two years I had stomach trouble," said Nicholas Long of the Merchants Trust Co., Greensburg, Pa. "As a result of this stomach trouble, I was nervous and could not sleep well, and I was very weak and practically in a breakdown condition. I doctored and tried all the remedies I could find in an effort to get relief, but it was without success. I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth. Then my stomach trouble disappeared. I eat well and I digest my food. I am sleeping fine. I certainly recommend Nerv-Worth to others."

You will find, as this gentleman found, that Nerv-Worth gives relief when other fail, because it scientifically treats both stomach and nervous derangements. It has been found that where stomach troubles exist, nervous troubles are usually present. Nerv-Worth, by acting on both the nerves and stomach, quickly gives the desired result, and aids toward restoring health, stopping the formation of gas, sweetening the stomach, adding assimilation, stopping fermentation, and helping the whole digestive tract. It also aids nerve force, gives sound restful sleep, relieves dizziness, and other nervous affections, and thus by this combined action, aids in restoring health and vigor to the sufferer. Give it a trial, and be convinced. If your first trial bottle does not benefit you, your money will be refunded. Price $1.25, plus tax.

THE NOISSON.

"THE SAPHIRE"—Winchell Smith's stirring drama of Wall Street and social intrigue, today's leading picture, is one of the best screen productions seen here for some time.

"The Saphire" is a photoplay of Wall Street and New York aristocracy. It is a picture of that phase of American life which has formed the basis of what has been designated by the critics as "the great American drama."

Love and high finance are intermingled with organs of wild spending that give to the story a gripping interest. Mr. Crane plays the role of the hard-headed, arrogant and haughty broker, while Buster Keaton is seen as the extravagant, easy going son whose many foolish excesses cause him to be dubbed "The Saphire."

Besides those mentioned the cast includes Carol Holloway, Neuloh Booker, Katherine Albert, Helen Holte, Edward Johnson, Jeffrey Williams, Alfred Hollingsworth and Henry Clayden. Screen version is presented by Winchell Smith and John L. Golden in conjunction with Marcus Leow, Harold Weststrom was photographer and F. H. Webster art director.

The picture will also be shown tomorrow.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"HEARTS UP"—A fine real Universal picture with Harry Carey in the leading role, appears in a story written by himself, is the feature attraction today and will also be shown tomorrow. David Brent, in "Hearts Up," arrives at the scene of a burning cabin just in time to carry out the body of Jim Drew, a swimmer who had been fatally wounded in a fight before the fire started. Brent recognizes in Drew a man to whom he owes a great deal of money and to whom he had felt under great obligations. He finds in Drew's pocket a letter from his daughter, Lorelei, announcing that she will arrive in San Francisco soon. Brent determines to meet the girl and journey to San Francisco for that purpose. She had not seen her father for years and thinks Brent himself is her father. Brent, desiring to break her belief to stand. A young girl, named Gordon Swanson, comes to the ranch. He is attracted by the girl and had already seen her in San Francisco and on the train later, Lorelei, discovering the truth, tells Brent she loves him, whether his name is Brent or Drew.

THE ORPHEUM.

"PARIS GREEN"—An interesting picture in which Charles Ray has the role of an ex-doubtful on the farm, is being shown today and will also be the attraction tomorrow.

In the hour Luther Green spends in Paris before leaving for the United States he meets a pretty French girl and gives her his card. Luther is discharged from the army and returns to the farm to find his old sweetheart engaged to another man. Meanwhile, Ninon, his Paris acquaintance, journey to America to take up her residence with an uncle here. She falls into the hands of a gang of crooks upon landing from the steamer. Escaping, she goes to the only address she knows—Luther Green, Quigley Corners, N. J. A pretty romance springs up between the two, with the aid of a French-English dictionary, and Luther is not only able to foil the crooks when they follow Ninon, but to convince her uncle of his honorable intentions as well. Ann May is the leading woman, and the cast also includes Donald McDonald and Otto Hoffman. Julien Josephson, who has written some of Charles Ray's best vehicles, furnished the story. Jergue Storm directed. The picture was produced by Thomas H. Ince and is a Paramount Afternoon release.

"Why Change Your Wife?" starring Thomas Meighan, Bebe Daniels and Gloria Swanson, will be seen in the near future.

WEST END THEATRE.

Having been trained and tested in the newspaper and circus business, it is not strange that R. M. Harvey, the founder of the Harvey Greater Minstrels, should be successful in the collecting of an unusual array of minstrel and vaudeville acts for his company of 50 people. Bold and yet cautiously scrutinizing, ready to take a chance on a big salary and yet certain to know what he is doing, this minstrel magnate seems able to retain the same when they have become members of his company.

The Australian Waltzes, without a doubt the world's most daring and wonderful whiz crackers, were long associated with Mr. Harvey in the circus field and appreciating their unusual merit and the superior novelty of their act (which must be seen to be appreciated) Mr. Harvey did not hesitate to engage them to be featured with his minstrel company and day after day people can be heard extolling the Australian Waltzes and their act as given with the Harvey Minstrels.

The popularity of the minstrel form of entertainment will never die out as long as such companies as the Harvey Greater Minstrels of 50 clever and talented people provide the entertainment they do and for the prices they do. A noon day parade is made daily.

Harvey's Greater Minstrels will be at the West End theatre, Uniontown, Monday and Tuesday, January 24 and 25.

The Voice of the Pack

By EDISON MARSHALL

CHAPTER—
Shortly after nine o'clock Whispermoot encountered his first herd of deer. But this caught his scent and scattered before he could get up to them. He met Wolf, grunting through the underbrush and he punctiliously, but with a wretched grin, left the trail. A fight with Wolf, the fiercest and one of the most unpleasant experiences that could be imagined. He had a pair of strong arms of which one embrace of a cougar's body meant death in one long shrike of pain. Of course they didn't fight often. They had entirely opposite interests. The bear was a heavy eater and a honey-grubber and the cougar cared too much for his own life and beauty to tackle Wolf in a hunting way.

A fawn leaped from the thicket in front of him, startled by his sound in the thicket. The truth was Whispermoot had made a wholly uncalculated misstep on a dry twig, just at the crucial moment. Perhaps it was the fault of a mouse whose presence had driven Whispermoot from the trail, and perhaps because old age and stiffness was coming upon him. But neither of these facts appeased his anger. He could scarcely suppress a snarl of fury and disappointment.

He continued along the ridge, still stealing, still alert, but his anger increasing with every moment. The fact that he had to leave the trail again to permit still another animal to pass, and a particularly insignificant one too, didn't make him feel any better. This animal had a number of curious stripes along his back, and usually did nothing more desperate than stomp eggs and eat bird feedings. Whispermoot could have crushed him with one bite, but this was one thing that the great cat, as long as he lived, would never try to do. He got out of the way politely when Stripe-back was still a quarter of a mile away, which was quite a compliment to the little animal's ability to introduce himself. Stripe-back was familiarly known as a skunk.

Shortly after ten the mountain lion had a remarkably fine chance at a buck. The direction of the wind, the trees, the chickens and the light were all in his favor. It was old Blacktail, wallowing in the salt lick and Whispermoot's heart bounded when he detected him. No human hunter could have laid his plans with greater care. He had to cut up the side of the ridge, mindful of the wind. Then there was a long dense thicket in which he might approach within fifty feet of the lick, still with the wind in his face. Just beside the lick was another deep thicket from which he could make his leap.

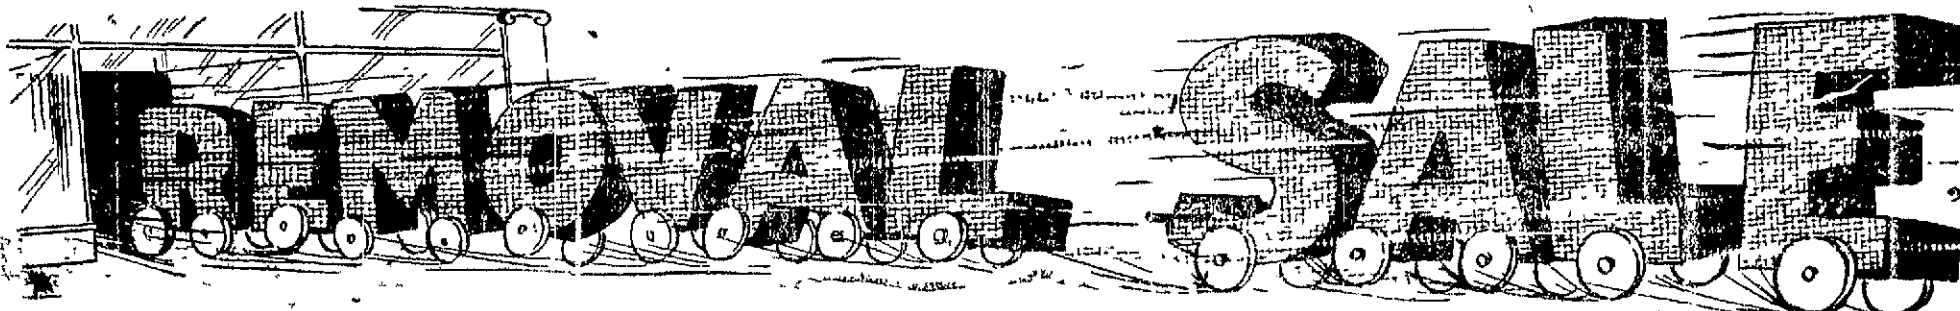

His body leaped. The tail lashed back and forth and now it had begun to have a slight vertical motion that Whispermoot has used to watch for. He paced away paw with one summit grace, and few sets of human muscles have sufficient control over leg muscles to move with such astonishing patience. He scarcely seemed to move at all.

But when scarcely ten feet remained to strike a sudden sound preceded the darkness. It came from afar, and it was no less terrible. It was faint, two sounds so close together that they sounded as one. Whispermoot had heard about them. They recognized him at once in strange ways under the skin that no man may describe, a far off report of a rifle. Just today Blacktail had seen his doe fall bleeding from a single sound on a loud, spoke from a covert from which Bert Cranston had pounced her—and he left the lick in one bound.

Terrified though he was by the rifle shot and Whispermoot's spring, but the distance was too far. His outstretched paw hummed down four feet, being Bligh's flank. Then forgetting everything but his anger and disappointment, the great cougar opened his mouth and howled.

The long night was almost done when he got sight of further game. Once a flock of grouse exploded with a roar of wings from a thicket, but as he had been awakened by the first whisper of dawn in the wind, and he really had no chance at them. Soon after this the moon set.

The larger creatures of the forest age almost as helpless in absolute darkness as human beings. It is very well to talk of seeing in the dark but from the nature of things, even vertical pupils may only respond to light. No owl or bat can see in absolute darkness. It became increasingly likely that Whispermoot would have to retire to his lair without any meal whatever.

But still he remained hoping against hope. After a futile fifteen minutes of watching a trail he heard a doe feeding on a hillside. Its foot fall was not so heavy as the sturdy tramp of a buck, and besides the bucks would be higher on the ridges at this time of morning. He began a cautious advance toward it.

For the first fifty yards the hunt was in his favor. He came up wind and the brush made a perfect cover. But the doe unfortunately was standing a full twenty yards farther in an open place. Under ordinary circumstances, Whispermoot would not have made an attack. A cougar can run swiftly, but a deer is light itself. The big cat would have picked up a flag—a motionless thing in the thicket—hoping some other member of the deer herd to which the doe must have belonged would come into his ambush. But the hunt was late, and Whispermoot was very hungry. Too many times this night he had missed his kill. In desperation, he leaped from the thicket and charged the deer.

In spite of the preponderant odds against him, he charged was almost a success. He went fully half the distance between them before the deer perceived him. Then she leaped. There seemed to be no tangle of trees between the instant that she beheld the dim fawn figure in the air and that in which her long legs pushed out in spring. Whispermoot's long straight ahead. She knew enough of the cougars to know that the spring cat would certainly aim for her head and neck in the same way that a duck hunter leads a fast flying duck, hoping to intercept her leap. Even as her feet left the ground she seemed to whirl in the air and the deadly talons whipped down to snare. Then "cutting back in front, she raced down wind.

It is usually the most unmitigated folly for a cougar to chase a deer against which he has missed his stroke and it is also quite fatal to his dignity. And whoever doubts for a minute that the larger creatures have no dignity, and that it is not very dear to them simply knows nothing about the ways of animals. They cling to it to the death. But tonight one did say

appointment after another had crumpled as the rains crumpled leaves, he lost vestige of Whispermoot's self control. Snarling in fury he bellowed after the deer.

She was lost to sight at once in the darkness but for fully thirty yards he raced in her pursuit. If he had stopped to think it would have been one of the really great surprises of his life to hear the sudden snarl, in the thicket he had no perception of the creature other than to movements. He was tumbling down hill so it is certain that he didn't smell it. If he saw it at all it was just as a shadow sufficiently large to be the of a deer. It was moving, crawling as if a deer. It was moving, crawling as if a deer. It was moving, crawling as if a deer.

Many School Children are Sickly. Mothers who suffer from colds and the like, and who are often sickly themselves, should use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It is a perfect rest. He landed high on its shoulders. His head bashed down and the white teeth closed. A bullet beside the tall. Word of the arrow ring would never reach the snarling, after all.

And as for Whispermoot—the terror that choked his heart with blood he can't wear off in a little while. The man lay so still in the thicket. He didn't move a muscle. All small in the air. Whispermoot's stroke had come home so true there had not even been a fight. The darkness began to fire around him and a strange exultation a rapture, unknown before in all his hunting, began to creep like life and blood. Then as a shadow stole he went creeping back to his lair.

Dan Tallant had been shivering in the on the high ridges and he went home by a back trail that led to old P. In mountain. The trail was just a narrow serpent in the brush and it had not been made by his jumps of laborers, swaying with shovels and picks. Possibly half a dozen white men in all had ever walked along it. It was just the part of the willow trees, worn down by hoofs and paws and erosion since the young days of the world.

It was a ramshackle trail home, but yet it had its advantages. It took him within two miles of Snowbird's lookout station and at this hour of day he had been put through a torment in finding his way to a certain spring on the mountain top. It was a long and colorful coincidence. Along about one he would usually find himself wondering up that way. Strangely, north at the same time. It was true that he had an irresistible impulse to go down and sit in the open camp beside the same spring. They always seemed to be surprised to see an Indian in reality, either of their world have been considerably more surprised if the other failed to put by an appearance. And always they had tall tales as the afternoon drew to twilight.

"But I don't think you ought to wait late before starting home," the girl said always. "You're not a man to look and it is easier to get lost than you think."

And this sentiment Dan Tallant's mind was a good sign. There was to be a one day trip. It was called an "unmistakable" trip. It was called an "unmistakable" trip. It was called an "unmistakable" trip. It was called an "unmistakable" trip.

Senreco
The double-service tooth paste, keeps teeth clean AND GUMS HEALTHY.

Keeping the gums healthy and the mouth sweet is very important to health; more teeth are lost through the loosening of the tissue that holds the teeth in place than from decay.

Dental science to-day demands that a tooth paste must keep the gums healthy as well as clean the teeth.

Senreco was formulated to meet this requirement. Hundreds of dentists are prescribing and using Senreco because they have found that it does measure up to that standard.

SENRECO IS A WONDERFUL CLEANSER.

In addition to its remedial properties Senreco is a wonderful cleanser; acts directly on the mucin film, the basis of tartar, leaves the mouth cool and clean-feeling. As some one has expressed it—Senreco gives one a new idea on mouth cleanliness.

Get a tube to-day at your druggist or toilet counter—enjoy the healthy, cleanly feeling its use gives your mouth and gums. Notice how brilliantly white Senreco makes your teeth. It performs this two-fold service for you and yet costs no more than the ordinary, old-fashioned tooth paste that simply cleans the teeth and leaves a pleasant taste.

He didn't think that so long as death spared him he would ever be able to forget that spring. It was a beautiful day and he was in the best of his mind. He was in the best of his mind. He was in the best of his mind. He was in the best of his mind.

PRESENT SLUMP IN MERCHANT COKE UNLIKE ANY PRECEDING

Operators in Strong Position and Agreed as to Methods.

NO CHANGE IN OPERATION

Except That Furnace Plants Show Slight Decline in Weekly Tonnage and More Ovens Are Placed on Idle List; Merchants Lead Some Stock.

From The Weekly Courier.

In several important particulars the existing slump in coke is unlike any that have preceded it. In the first place, the merchant operators are better positioned, financially and otherwise, to withstand it than they have ever been before. There is a rather remarkable feeling of unanimity among them; that there is no necessity, nor can any good end be served by attempting to stimulate market activity, or to sacrifice their coal resources merely to keep plants in operation. Again, there is the nearest approach to complete suspension of merchant production that has taken place for a long time, which is the outcome of the policy of restriction adopted at the beginning of the period of decline and continued, or made more stringent from week to week as the necessities required.

The result, from an operating point of view, has been to quite effectively clear the region of surplus stock and unsold cars and leave the plants in condition for quick resumption of activity when the turn in the tide sets in, and at the same time preventing a situation that could not otherwise have been easily kept in hand. Incidentally there has been the common understanding that prevailing prices mark the low point in the curve and that while the depression may continue for a considerable period the trend meantime, and the definite course later, will be in the direction of a higher level.

Last week was but a repetition; in most respects, of those immediately preceding it, as far as the production of coke is concerned. The only change was that the output of the furnace ovens dropped off slightly, as a result of a five-day running schedule at part of the H. C. Erickson coke company's plants, and the blowing out of one of their ovens. Merchant production declined to a still lower total and 1,945 ovens were formally declared as out of blast. The elimination of the total of 1,363 ovens produced a less pronounced effect on the estimated tonnage than would otherwise appear because of the fact that the bulk of them had been banked or only in occasional or part production for several weeks, but still carried on the active list.

As part of the program to make the clean-up of coke as complete as possible, and to avoid accumulations becoming unwieldy, a few merchant plants loaded out stock last week instead of running their ovens. The furnace ovens loaded rather less stock than usual but still further reduced the quantity in storage on the even yards.

The estimated production of coke during the week ending Saturday, January 25, was 179,180 tons, credited to the two districts as follows: Connelville, 119,560, a decrease of 4,876 tons; Lower Connelville, 59,620, a decrease of 4,000 tons, or a total decrease of 8,876 tons.

By interests the production was: Furnace, 141,860, a loss of 4,390 tons; merchant, 37,320, a loss of 770 tons, as compared with a gain of 11,875 at furnace ovens and a loss of 3,510 tons at merchant ovens during the week ended January 18.

The addition of 1,153 ovens to the inactive list included, as noted, 108 at furnace and 1,045 at merchant plants. The reductions were largely confined to the Connelville district, 1,000 having been blown out as follows: 832 at Oliver No. 1, 2 and 3; 50 at Ellen No. 2; 20 at Becht No. 2; 34 at Mammoth; and 54 at Southwest No. 1. In the Lower Connelville district, 25 were made idle at Seagriff and the 128 at Century produced no coke.

YOU CAN LIKE COLD WEATHER

Crisp and Snappy Winter Air Should Make Your Blood Thicker.

YOU SHOULD ENJOY OUTDOORS

Pepto-Mangan Will Put Your Blood With Vital Red Corpuscles, Able to Stand Cold Weather.

Some people dread cold weather. The least frost in the air shrivels them up. They put on heavy fannels, hug the fire and still feel cold. It is pretty safe to say that people like that have thin, weak blood.

On the other hand you see other people who take on a healthy glow in cold weather. Their blood shows red on their cheeks and the color of their lips is heightened. They stop out briskly, breathe in the cold air, and it seems to set like a tonic.

That's what it means to have plenty of rich, healthy blood. The ozone in cold air touches the good blood in the lungs and sets new vigor into the body. You square your shoulders. The sting of clean, crisp, cold air feels pleasant. You really enjoy the cold.

On the other hand, people with blood that are red with weak, impoverished blood, lacking in red corpuscles, hate cold air. Their faces and lips seem to turn blue and look pinched. Their eyes look watery. There's no pleasure in winter for them.

So be sure your blood is healthy. Perhaps it needs a lift right now. Pepto-Mangan will tone your blood up to its normal state. Doctors have prescribed it for years because it has the right ingredients to make new blood. Besides, it is easy to take. Comes in tablet or liquid form. Both have the same medicinal value.

Make certain that you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Guth's" and see that the name, "Guth's Pepto-Mangan" is on the package. —Adv.
